ETHOS AND PHILOSOPHY

Duckegg Theatre Acting School Ltd offer unique and holistic training in Acting and Voice, building communities of like minded creative individuals through mentorship. Our groups cater for early years right up to our post-14 provision.

* To promote initiative in young people.

We don't just nurture performers, we nurture human potential.

* To support members in learning how to 'fail well'. Confidence is as much about your relationship with failure as it is about success.

* To train our members to industry standard, should they wish.

We aim to demystify the arts industry and tackle elitism, making the arts a viable career for those who seek it.

* To mentor creative communities.

Part of working in the arts is learning how to make your own work. To do this you must find your people!

* To take ownership of creative practices.

Our members work is their own. They are mentored and encouraged, not dictated to and shoehorned.

CREATIVE MENTOR

At Duckegg Theatre Acting School you work with Creative Mentors rather than teachers. Our creative mentors are highly experienced dual-professionals, working in education and the arts.

“Mentoring is to support and encourage people to manage their own learning in order that they may maximise their potential, develop their skills, improve their performance and become the person they want to be.” Eric Parsloe

CLASS SET UP

Duckegg Theatre Acting School recognise all our members are at different stages of development. Our aim is to support groups to all members are stretched but not overwhelmed. As our members become older or more mature within their groups, they will have the opportunity to take on additional production roles.

Duckegg Theatre Acting School pride ourselves on our members 'falling in love with the arts'. Therefore parental support is crucial for our philosophy to work. Please encourage members to learn pieces and practice at home, and during sharings and performances applaud all groups.

Our aim is for our members to come out of class and off stage smiling, whether it was an Oscar winning performance or needed a bit of work. We have to create a safe space to fail in order for members to dare to create. It is appreciated and helpful when families continue this ethos at home and when watching performances, encouraging all the way with no judgement.

SHOWS AND SOCIAL EVENTS

Duckegg Theatre Acting School members, Juniors and Seniors will work towards two performances per year which are rehearsed during their weekly classes. The first show will take place at Christmas within our class venues, allowing the opportunity to create a piece catered for a more intimate space and performance style. Previously groups have created: immersive or pantomime style pieces as well as changing the stage layout to traverse or in the round. The second performance will be at the end of Summer term at a theatre. The End of Year show is an opportunity to produce a piece for a larger venue with a traditional stage set up. Previously our groups have produced Mini Musicals, devised plays, scripted pieces, to name a few. All further information regarding rehearsals and performances will be sent to members during the Academic year.

Four our younger Mini Egg students, parent/carers will be invited to view class at the end of each term. Dates will be shared in due course.

ProTeam work on one larger scale performance per year. For 2024/25 the team have gained a place with National Theatre Connections. As part of the scheme the team will be working on a brand new play for various performances in addition to some extra opportunities such as workshops with National Theatre Directors.

Through the year our members may also be invited to take part or audition for professional work and/or partake in extra performance opportunities and experiences. These opportunities will be advertised on social media and sent out via email.

During class viewings, socials and shows, other parents may wish to photograph/ video their child participating in class during the viewing sessions for their personal record and your child may be included in these images. If we have granted permissions from all parents/carers photograph and video will be permitted. Teachers will advise at the start of the viewing as appropriate. Full details on photo permissions are included at registration on LoveAdmin and preferences will be followed.

LAMDA

Duckegg Theatre Acting School offer the option of taking solo LAMDA exams in addition to your weekly class. You must have been a member of a weekly Duckegg Junior or above class for a minimum of 1 term before starting work towards a solo exam.

Should you wish to work towards a LAMDA exam with us you must book a minimum of 4 1/2 hour 1-1 sessions with Vicky to prepare in addition to home practice. All LAMDA tuition and exams will take place online due to the wide area of which we operate. This is also a great opportunity for our members to work on a different performance style, for video or online call. The need for this is ever growing in our industry with the majority of first round auditions taking place via self-tape.

Please note solo LAMDA exams come with additional fees. If LAMDA exams are of interest please contact your area vicky@duckeggtheatre.co.uk for further information.

The amount can vary due to our budget and the individual photographer's method (they all have their own policy).

ABSENCES

If you are unable to attend class:

If you are unable to attend class please contact your creative mentor via their email to help them plan accordingly.

If you are unable to contact us in advance please email retrospectively so we can note this on system.

TOILET TRIPS

Where possible we advise students use the toilet prior to class so do not need to leave the class mid session. Mini and Junior parents please ensure your child has gone to the toilet before class commences. Students are allowed to use the toilet during class time but will miss out on valuable lesson time and we want to minimise this as much as possible.

LOST PROPERTY

All equipment, uniform & personal items should be clearly marked with your name to help identify any lost property items. Please immediately inform your Duckegg Creative Mentor of any lost property and arrange collecting it. Any unclaimed property will be donated to charity at the end of each term. Duckegg Theatre Acting School accepts no responsibility for any loss of property.

OUR VENUES

Our groups run out of a variety of spaces, from business centres to community halls. All we need is a blank canvas to create high quality performance work.

Please help us keep the buildings as good as new. We want you all to be proud of the spaces in which you train so please treat them with respect. We know you will.

Mini and Junior pupils should be accompanied by an adult in the foyer area until the creative mentor collects them for class. Members will be brought back to the foyer area by the creative mentor after class and signed out.

Senior and ProTeam pupils may make their own way to and from sessions if we have parent/carer permission for this. If you wish to grant permission for this please email your creative mentor. Mini and Junior pupils MUST always be picked up and dropped off by an adult. All pupils will remain at the class venue for the duration of their session, regardless of age.
